

It is my belief, if I pay for something that is legal, I have the right to use the item anyway I see fit. If it is legal let me enjoy a commercial free venue. It seems to be evident that the driving force is behind this attack on satellite radio is being driven by advertisers. So, let's make a wise decision, let the people who want to pay for radio do just that, and enjoy commercial free radio. Reject NAB's petition 04-160 let me enjoy the benefits of XM radio.
